with the definition of these core services, merely with assessing the cost.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Okay.

SENATOR BOHLKE: And Senator Hartnett probably has his light on, if that's not true he can respond to that. But that's...I believe that's how it will work. Thank you.

SENATOR WESELY: Thank you, Senator Bohlke. Chair recognizes Senator Wehrbein.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: A couple questions, first of all the freshest one. Does that...if we, we appropriate that to the Department of Education for distribution, is that...

SENATOR BOHLKE: Pardon, I'm sorry.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: We appropriate that to the Department of Education for distribution, is that the...just like...

SENATOR BOHLKE: Yes.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Okay. The other question I have, Senator Hartnett, I was not listening early and did you say there's going to continue to be a cent and a half local property tax to run ESUs for...

SENATOR HARTNETT: Correct.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: ...for...?

SENATOR HARTNETT: Probably administration and, and also provide services, depending upon the ESU, provide services that, that all, that two-thirds of the school districts plus half of the...representing half the membership that they can fund. So they'll do both of that out of the 1.5 cents. Right now there...we cut the levy from 3.5 cents to 1.5 cents.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Okay. So they're expected to have a minimum, let's call it minimum mode of operation.
